

SMALL GROUP TOURS AT BFREE

BELIZE FOUNDATION FOR RESEARCH AND ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION

All-inclusive tours for groups of 2-7 people at the BFREE Biological Field Station

Plan your next adventure with BFREE!
Visit our 1,153 acres of privately protected area in the heart of the rainforest.

Relax, explore, discover.
Opportunities are endless!

Let us help bring your family or community together. Small Group Tours at BFREE are perfect for:

- Biking, hiking or walking clubs
- Birding clubs
- Family reunions
- Team retreats
- Affinity groups of all kinds

Want a Quote?

Contact reservations@bfreebz.org

Pricing includes everything listed here!

Licensed Tour Guide:

- The tour guide is available to hike the entrance road with participants upon arrival/departure
- The tour guide will provide the group with a welcome orientation including health and safety, a history of BFREE and overview of current BFREE programs, and a tour of the field station facilities
- The tour guide will open the Cool Spot daily to serve cold beverages from 5:00-6:00 PM
- The tour guide is available to assist group leaders in coordinating other scheduled activities

Lodging:

- Accommodations in BFREE Cabins (2-4 person occupancy)
- Breakfast, lunch, and dinner
- BFREE Conservation Fee

Tours:

- Choose from daily guided night hike or early morning birding tours
- Tour and presentation of two BFREE programs including the Hicatee Conservation & Research Center and the Cacao Discovery Center
- Day hike through the property led by BFREE Park Rangers

